Ms. Sherryl Stovall Whiting, Episcopal President

Mrs. Deana Young McAllister, Episcopal Supervisor

Bishop Julius Harrison McAllister, Jr., Presiding Prelate

We are called to strengthen our faith and sent to continue the ministry of Jesus Christ by service and witness in the world.

Summer Greetings to the Missionaries of the Ninth Episcopal District

Grace and peace to the faithful missionaries of the Ninth Episcopal District!

As we enter this wonderful season of summer, my heart is filled with gratitude as I reflect upon the excellent Missionary Institutes that have been held across our District. What a tremendous blessing it has been to witness missionaries gathering together for learning, fellowship, and spiritual growth.

I extend sincere thanks and appreciation to each of our Conference Presidents, their leadership teams, and all of our workshop presenters for their tireless efforts in planning and executing meaningful and impactful institutes. Your dedication to excellence and your commitment to the work of missions have strengthened our District and inspired us all to continue serving God's people with passion and purpose.

I would also like to thank each of you who have been praying and supporting our Capital Campaign initiative. As we continue raising funds to supplement and support our delegation attending the upcoming Quadrennial Convention in Dallas, Texas, next summer, I encourage every missionary to make a financial pledge to the Ninth Episcopal District Women's Missionary Society. There is still time to participate in this important effort.

Each Conference President has pledge cards available. Once completed, please return your pledge card so that we may accurately account for all commitments and monies received. Together, we can ensure that our District is well represented and prepared for this significant Connectional gathering.

As summer begins, the Ninth District remains busy! Bishop McAllister and I look forward to seeing many of you at the upcoming Christian Education Congress (CEC) on the beautiful campus of Alabama A&M University, June 29 through July 2. If you have not yet registered, there is still time to do so. We anticipate a rich and rewarding experience as we gather to learn, grow, and strengthen our faith together.

Additionally, don't forget that we will culminate our District-wide reading of Sassy Discovers the AME Church by B. A. Johnson during CEC. Sister Johnson, a member of St. John AME Church in Huntsville, Alabama, will join us to engage both our YPD and WMS participants. If you have not already secured your copy, I encourage you to do so, read the book, and come prepared for an exciting discussion.

Thank you for all that you do each day to move missions forward throughout the Ninth Episcopal District and beyond. Your service, sacrifice, and steadfast commitment continue to make a difference in the lives of God's people.

May God bless you and your families with a safe, restful, and productive summer season.

Love first and lead second!

Yours in Mission,

Supervisor Deana Young McAllister
Ninth Episcopal District Women's Missionary Society

Greetings, beloved members of the 9th Episcopal District Women's Missionary Society,

It is with great joy and gratitude that I extend warm greetings to each of you. As your President, I am continually inspired by your unwavering commitment to the work of missions, your steadfast faith, and your dedication to serving God's people. Your prayers, sacrifices, and acts of compassion are making a meaningful difference in our churches, communities, and beyond.

As we journey together in ministry, let us remain encouraged by the promise found in God's Word that our labor is never in vain. Every act of kindness, every word of encouragement, and every service rendered in love contributes to the advancement of God's Kingdom. Though challenges may arise, we can move forward with confidence, knowing that God is strengthening and guiding us every step of the way.

I celebrate the spirit of unity that continues to characterize our missionary society. When women of faith come together with a shared purpose, extraordinary things happen. Our collective strength, wisdom, and commitment enable us to meet needs, uplift others, and serve as instruments of hope in a world that desperately needs the love of Christ.

Let us also embrace this season as an opportunity for growth and renewal. May we continue to deepen our relationship with God, sharpen our vision for ministry, and seek fresh ways to impact the lives of those we serve. The future is bright when we place our trust in the Lord and remain faithful to the calling He has given us.

I encourage each of you to keep your hearts open to God's direction and your hands ready for service. Remember that your presence, your gifts, and your willingness to serve matter greatly. You are valued, appreciated, and uniquely equipped to fulfill the mission that God has entrusted to us as women of faith.

Thank you for your continued dedication, faithfulness, and love. Together, let us move forward with courage, hope, and expectation, believing that God will do exceedingly and abundantly above all that we can ask or think. May His blessings rest upon each of you, your families, your local societies, and the entire 9th Episcopal District Women's Missionary Society as we continue to serve for His glory.

With love and appreciation,

Sherryl Whiting
